

I am in favor of limiting the number of stations any one company may own. This is the only way to keep local items of interest in the news.